

SULLIVAN WINS FROM BRYANITES

Illinois Endorses Bryan. But Turns Down Request.

Fight During Democratic Convention
at Peoria and Lie Is Passed
Once.

POLICE HAVE TO INTERFERE.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 22.—State Treasurer N. L. Piotrowski, of Chicago, Superintendent of schools—Caroline Groat, Pike county.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 22.—The nominations by the Democratic state convention here preceded the vote of 1938 to 570 by which the delegates placed upon the table the request of William J. Bryan for the resignation of Roger C. Sullivan from the national committee.

Despite the fact that Bryan declared that he did not wish to be endorsed unless Sullivan was repudiated the convention declared that he was the one and only man capable of leading the Democratic party to victory in 1908.

The endorsement of Bryan and the tabling of the motion for Sullivan's resignation came at the close of an exciting session in which there were several fights and throughout which confusion reigned.

The Bryan plank was greeted by tremendous cheering.

Then the Sullivan controversy was taken up. After Judge Thompson spoke for his resignation, Sullivan said in defense: "You've witnessed a spectacle of an individual who came here to gratify spleen, hatred and malice against me."

"You're a liar," came from the DuPage delegation and instantly the Sullivan delegates sprang for the speaker and half a dozen police were required to stop the fight.

Order was finally restored and a Sullivan commenced to speak, two men clutching each other by the throat staggered through the door on the opposite side of the hall. It took a platoon of policemen to drag them out of the hall to the sidewalk, where they started a second round.

Thomas Hawkins against steamer Monie Bauer.

Whereas a libel was filed in the district court of the United States, for the western district of Kentucky, at Paducah on the 8th day of August, 1906, by Thomas Hawkins vs. steamer Monie Bauer, her engines, tackle, apparel, furniture, etc., and owners, alleging in substance that said steamer was indebted to him in the sum of three hundred and seven dollars, for wages, and that same has never been paid, and prays process against said steamer Monie Bauer and that the same may be condemned and sold to pay said claim, with cost and expenses.

Now, therefore, in pursuance to the motion under seal of said court, to me directed I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming said steamer Monie Bauer, or in any way interested therein, that they be and appear before the district court of the United States in the city of Paducah, Ky., on or before the 3rd day of September 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m., of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and to make their allegations in that behalf.

His Wife's Quiet Reproach.

Admiral Capps in an address to a temperance society, told how drink had once caused the downfall of a brave soldier.

In the course of the sad story he said:

"Sometimes, after a debauch, the man would be repentant, humble. He would promise his wife to do better; but, alas, the years taught her the barrenness of all such promises.

"One night, when he was getting to be an old man—a prematurely old man, thin limbed, stoop shouldered, with red-rimmed eyes—he said to his wife sadly:

"You're a clever woman, Jenny; a courageous, active, good woman: You should have married a better man than I am dear."

She looked at him, and, thinking of what he once had been, she answered, in a quiet voice:

"I did, James."—Kansas City Journal.

DO NOT ENFORCE DOG TAX JUSTLY

Poor People Pay Most of the License Fees.

Become Due in January and Penalty of Ten Per Cent Goes on After That.

MANY OWNERS BLUFF CITY

Injustice in the enforcement of the dog tax law is pointed out by officials in the city hall, and the treasurer, auditor and city clerk are unanimous in the opinion that of the 126 owners, who have taken out licenses on their dogs in Paducah, fully three-fourths are poor people, whose dogs are scarcely worth the price charged, and who pay the annual charge simply to protect their children's pets.

It is a state law and not a city ordinance under which dogs are licensed, the fee being $3, and the law was passed at the instance of sheep-owners in central Kentucky; but the injustice comes in the manner of its enforcement.

The tax is due in January and after that month a penalty of 10 per cent goes on. No effort is made to enforce the law until the dog days come. Then these poor people are rounded up and compelled to pay $3.30 for their pets, while the people, who own valuable animals bluff it through and escape the expense.

Not more than half the dogs in Paducah, it is estimated, are licensed, and yet efforts of the police to compel payment of licenses, have resulted only in increased expense to the city. This spring about 75 canines were penned up ready to be killed and rendered into soap fat, when some angry owner, broke the lock and turned all the dogs loose, and then burned the dog pound. That ended the city's efforts for one season.

Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial.
